

13th International Conference on Open & Distance Education ICODL 2025

Patras, December 5-7, 2025

onsite or online

Open and distance learning:

21st Century Skills and the Challenge of Artificial Intelligence

Conference topics

- Contemporary strategies and educational policies in open and distance education
- Leadership, strategy and digital transformation
- International experiences and applications of open and distance education in primary, secondary and higher education
- Open education and 21st century skills
- Distance learning in vocational training and lifelong learning
- Experiences and Practices in distance education and professional development of teachers
- Distance learning materials with AI applications
- Security, Privacy, Intellectual Property Rights and Ethics in distance learning environments
- Quality in distance education in the age of AI
- Alternative approaches to assessment and the cultivation of 21st century skills
- Virtual and Augmented Reality in distance education
- Special education, accessibility and vulnerable groups in distance education

- Art and distance education
- Distance education and sustainable development

Important dates

- Submission of papers: 30 June 2025
- Acceptance of papers/information to authors: 31 August 2025
- Submission of final and revised papers: 30 September 2025
- Conference dates: 5 to 7 December 2025

Conference languages: Greek/English

Venue

Hellenic Open University

Organised by

- Hellenic Open University, School of Humanities
- Hellenic Network for Open & Distance Education (EDAE)

Submission of papers

You can submit your paper to the following address:

<https://eproceedings.epublishing.ekt.gr/index.php/openedu/about/submissions#onlineSubmissions>

Information about the Conference and submission of proposals for Workshops or Thematic Panels: icodl2025@gmail.com

Website: www.edae.net